

Angling Trust Interactive website listing

The Angling Trust has developed its own online club listing and mapping tool which can help to promote your club and ultimately help you to recruit new members. For your club to appear accurately in the listing we will require some further information from you. As a primary contact for your club you can do this by logging in the user area on the angling trust website (www.anglingtrust.net). Don't worry if you've forgotten your password, we can email it to you. If you don't have access to the internet then please complete this form and return it to the address below:
