

How we use your information

Who we are:

The Angling Trust is the single organisation that represents game, coarse and sea anglers and angling in England. We work with clubs and partners to promote opportunities for fishing and to protect the health of fish populations.

How we will use your information:

The purpose of this Privacy Notice is to inform you of the uses that will be made of your personal data as required of Data Controllers under the Data Protection Act 1998.

The purposes for which we may use the data include the following:

- To evaluate applications to the Angling Improvement Fund;
- To enable us to monitor the types and numbers of applications received;
- To help us monitor delivery of work funded by the scheme;
- For reports and publications, whilst strictly maintaining your confidentiality;
- To allow us to contact you for further information in relation to your application; to return results and comments and to request your feedback;
- To contact you in connection with occasional customer research aimed at improving our service to you.

Angling Trust will keep all information safe and secure.

We may occasionally make data available in an anonymised or aggregated form to bona fide researchers or agencies to help us determine the future direction of Angling Trust's work. Personal or commercial data held by Angling Trust may be made available to Local Authorities and other Public Bodies within the UK and European Union to fulfil statutory obligations. We will not permit any unwarranted breach of confidentiality or act in contravention of obligations under the Data Protection Act 1998.

Access to your information:

If you wish to obtain a copy of your personal data held by Angling Trust, or if you have a query or complaint about Angling Trust's handling of your personal information please email admin@anglingtrust.net or write to us at Angling Trust, Eastwood House 6 Rainbow Street Leominster Herefordshire HR6 8DQ. Alternatively you may telephone us on 01568 620447.